How we use cookies

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets us know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyse data about webpage traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to customer needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us.

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

Sharing of your information

We may share your information with the following recipients:

- On a need-to-know basis with our third-party service providers who help with our business operations or to provide our products and services to you on our behalf or to send you our promotional or marketing material (for example, logistics, advertising, marketing, promotional, web analytics or payment processing service providers). Such service providers are required to keep the information confidential and use it only for the services they provide to us.
- We may compile statistics about the use of our website including data on traffic, usage patterns, user numbers, sales, and other information. All such data will be anonymized and will not include any personally identifying information. We may from time to time share such data with third parties. Data will only be shared and used within the bounds of the law.
- We may share your information with our subsidiaries and affiliates to carry out regular business activities and operations or with our trusted associates, business partners or third parties if necessary for the performance and provision of our goods and services to you.

- We may share, transfer, or sell your information to an affiliate or other third party in the event of any reorganization, merger, sale, joint venture, assignment, business transfer or other disposition of all or any portion of our business, assets or stock including without limitation in connection with any bankruptcy or similar proceedings. In such an event, we will notify you of any change in ownership.
- We may share your information if and when required by any law or to comply with any legally binding request that is made of us, for example, where we are involved in any legal proceedings, where we are complying with the requirements of any legislation, court order, or governmental authority or if necessary to protect our rights, business, operations, systems, or property and / or that of other visitors or users this website including you or other third parties or the public.
